The team will lose only one man by graduation this spring.—Captain Carter, who has put up such a superh game at the initial sack the entire season. With R'xey and Grant as the mainstays in the box next season, the outlook is exceedingly flattering for a winning team. Both of these south-paws should be in their prime next spring, and may be counted upon to close their college careers on the classenther of the contest, and with a little more one contest, and with a little more seasoning should develop into one of victories of the season.

This year's team, as a whole, was a well-balanced one. At the bat the men showed up exceedingly well. There were few stars with the stick, but there was hardly a player in the lot that could not pound out a hit at an opportune moment. From Finlay clean tarough the line-up to the pitcher, it was a fighting squad. The fielding was far above the average of Virginia teams in recent years. The infield was especially fast. Carter, Douglas and Neef proved a wonderfultio, and Hewitt showed marked improvement as the season progressed. SERMON FOR ODD-FELLOWS.

Rev. J. Sidney Peters Conducts Service for Emporta Lodge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Emporta. Va. May 5.—Emporia Lodge, No. 232, Independent Order of Odd-Fellows, had its annual sermon preached to-day at the Method'st Episcopal Church, Rev. J. Sidney Peters delivering the oration. Mr. Peters took for his subject the bond of sympathy and friendship existing between David and Jonathan.

The members of the local lodge and a delegation from the Drewryville Lodge, of Southam ton county, marched from the L. O. O. F. hall in a body to the church, where space had been reserved for the members of the order. A special musical program, under the direction of George Lunn of Norfolk, was rendered by the choir.
